

Executive Recruiters for the Jewelry Industry

Dear Candidate,

ESP Global is an international recruiting company exclusively for the greater jewelry industry, fashion accessories, writing instrument, ad specialty / emblematic, gift and associated industries.

For the past 25+ years we have recruited, screened, interviewed, and placed hundreds of industry specialists in positions within the jewelry, accessories, and/or related industries. Confidentiality is taken very seriously at ESP, serving as testament to our success. In fact, ESP has never committed an indiscretion resulting in a candidate losing their current position. Each search is handled with sensitivity, finesse and discretion, as we match our current (and future) openings to your background.

It is estimated that 75% of the best professional employment opportunities are never made public. If you're contemplating a career change, the best initial move you can make is to consult with ESP. And, of course, our services are offered at no cost to you, the candidate.

We consistently place numerous industry professionals in the many disciplines listed to the right, so if you'd like to add your candidacy to our database, feel free to give us a call, or e-mail your resume in confidence to: inquiry@espglobal.net

The smartest companies in the industry complement their searches through ESP.

It is clearly to your advantage to extend your search beyond the classifieds or "who you know" . . . and let ESP be your industry resource to finding a better or more lucrative position. Utilize our successful track record of matching the perfect candidate to the best opportunity.

Call upon ESP "Your HIRE authority".

Very truly yours,

Edward A. Lemire, CPC
